IT DOESN'T HAVE

to be a struggle to keep your cool when things get hot. Let's face it, sometimes your body wants to say "yes" even when your mind is saying "no". And at your age, your body can talk pretty darn loud. You need a way to tell your body, "Cut it out, I've got more productive things to do."

BUT IT DOESN'T

mean you have to fight that war of mind over matter alone. We all need a friend sometimes, but sometimes you need a very special kind of friend. One who tells you to keep your hands off, and your pants on. Now, thanks to the good people at GalvoKlexam, you can finally have that friend. In fact, you can have a whole bottleful.

"Just because it fits, doesn't mean it goes there..."

You may be wondering, aren't we supposed to "just say no" to drugs? Well, this purple pill is no ordinary drug. Passionix™ is real medicine, prescribed by your doctor or clergyman. But unlike most medicine, it's not designed to improve your physical health or even your mental health. We've finally created a medicine that improves your

MORAL HEALTH.

It's finally time to get your life in order. With Passionix™, you can free your mind from dealing with the troubles of adolescent social interactions, and focus on the truly important things in a teenager's life like homework, chores, Bible study, and spending more time with your parents. So stop worrying about saying "No we shouldn't," and start saying

YES WE CAN!
